DEATH OF MR. SCHWAB .- Mr. Fred. Schwab, another old and well known citizen, passed away shortly before 12 o'clock last night at his home, on north Royal street, after a long illness. The deceased had been a sufferer for several years from stomach trouble, and of late the disease had reached an acute stage. His condition became critical a day or two ago, when it was apparent his death was a matter of a short time. He lingered yesterday on the confines of the spirit world and his dissolution was noticeable, and shortly before the town clock struck the bour of midnight town clock struck the bour of midnight the vital spark had fled. Mr. Scwab was born in Hesse-Darmstadt 62 years ago. He came to this country when 14 years old and learned to be a baker. Over two core years ago he came to Alexandria where for a time he worked at his trade. Upon the breaking out of the war halwasn the States the deof the war between the States the decrastd enlisted in Kemper's Bittery and followed the fortunes of the South ero Confederacy during the four years which followed, ever showing bimself to be a gallant soldier. He returned to Alexandria at the close of hostilities and subsequently married a daughter of the late Michael Bossart. During the past quarter of a century he had been keeper of a public house. For several years be conducted a hotel in Market alley, but during his later years was proprietor of a saloon on north Royal street. He enjoyed a well-deserved popularity among all who knew him, being courteous and well-disposed toward all he met. Mr. Schwab was married twice—his first Schwab was married twice—his first wife having died nearly twenty years sego. His second wife, who survives him, was a Mrs. Shuman. He leaves nine children—six by his first marriage and three by the last. The deceased was a member of Lee Camp of Confederate Veterans, Osceola Tribs of Red Men, Alexandria Council, Royal Arcanum, and the Friendship Fire Comeany.

WILL PROBATED.—In the Corpora-tion Court today the will of the late Miss Eliza K. Davis was admitted to probate and Mr. G. L. Boothe qualified as executor. Messrs. R. F. Knox, J. T. Burke and N. P. T. Burke were appointed appraisers of the estate, which consists of personal property only and is valued at about $10,000. The deis valued at about $10,000. The deceased left her nephew, J. G. Davis, of Woodstock, $100; Mrs. J. G. Chapman, of this city, $500, and the residue is to be divided into six parts equally among her nieces, Margaret, Virginia and Lucy Dyer, of Washington, and Sallie M. Davs, Annie Miller and Mary D. Kelly, of Woodstock Two small bequests to colored servants were also made.

The will of the late Owen Carroll was refused probate because it was not executed and attested according to law. The decessed named Mr. M. Schuler as executor and left his estate to his daugh-ter, Mrs. Lizzle Greene, except a house and lot at the corner of Columbus and Wolfe streets, which he left to his grandchildren. The property will now have to be divided according to law.

BOY RUNAWAYS -Alfred P. Shields Davis Knight, Robert McGruder and Davis Knight, Robert McGruder and Clarence Gilbert, well dressed white youths, claiming to hail from Richmond, were arrested yesterday evening on the charge of being runaways. The boys say they left Richmond Wednesday, on the 12 o'clock train, arriving in Washington at 3 o'clock. They then visited the National Theatre, and yesterday morning came over to this city. They claim they went to Washington on a sight-seeing expedition. Knight says he is a son of Postmaster Knight, of Richmond. The boys were in the best of spirits, and say that they telebest of spirits, and say that they telegraphed their parents of their safe ar rival. The other three are sons of prominent families. All are 14 years of age. Eidie Baker accompanied them, but left them for the purpose of visiting relatives in Washington. They were held awaiting word from their parents and this evening were sent back to their homes in Riebmond.

POLICE COURT.—The following cases were disposed of today:
